The new Cleveland Public Library logo embodies the elements of light through its use of spectral colors illuminating the transparent pages of a book. The icon also symbolizes the corner pillars of the Louis Stokes Wing of the Cleveland Public Library, the spectrum of light illuminated through its windows. The logo is framed by a luminous arc, which acts as the bridge to knowledge, learning and inspiration.