

LEGAL RESOURCES at Cleveland Public Library

Historically, Cleveland Public Library has the aforementioned legal print resources going back as far as the twentieth century, in which some of these resources continue to be available in print only, with no Internet subscription available. Also, some states only allow print official legal resources as an authentic resource.

Use this quick reference guide to find resources that will best answer your business, consumer protection, franchise, labor, payroll, pension, social security, stocks, taxation, and trucking questions. Furthermore, find resources to answer your questions on Cleveland, Ohio and Federal law.

The following reference sources are located in our Business, Economics, and Labor Department, (located at Cleveland Public Library, Louis Stokes Wing, 4th Floor), unless otherwise noted.
